'Give them something to eat' Matthew 14: 16

In today's Readings, we see the lavishness of God's love, shown by his deep longing to feed the hungry, physically and spiritually.

Isaiah invites all who are thirsty and hungry, and who have no money, to avail of God's abundance at no cost, symbolising God's salvation for all people.

The Psalm expresses the compassion and justice of God who is close to all who call on him, and St Paul writing to the Romans, assures us of God's enduring love, 'Nothing can separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus'.

As the Gospel from Matthew unfolds, we can imagine ourselves in the presence of Jesus seeking a quiet place as he grieves the death of his cousin, John the Baptist. In his humanity we see his grief, and his compassion when the crowds seek him out. Seeing their needs, he heals the sick.

What follows is the miraculous feeding of the hungry multitude.

We watch Jesus take the small offering of five loaves and two fish, raise his eyes to heaven, say a blessing, break the loaves and give them to the disciples to share with the crowd who ate and were satisfied.

The early Church saw in this miracle an anticipation of the Eucharist when at the Last Supper Jesus took the bread, blessed it, broke it, saying: 'Take this, all of you, and eat of it'.

At every Mass, these same words and gestures of Jesus make Him present to us, as he becomes the Bread of Life, food for our spiritual hunger.

We pray this week for the hungry multitudes who survive physically on "leftovers". Sister Nuala

Dear Friend in Christ,

Welcome to St. Aidan's Church! Whether you are visiting for the first time, returning after some time away, or simply seeking a quiet moment with God, we are truly blessed by your presence. This is a sacred space where hearts are lifted, prayers are heard, and lives are renewed by the grace and love of our Lord.

Here in this house of prayer, we invite you to take time to reflect, to find peace in silence, and to open your heart to God, who knows you, loves you, and walks with you always. Whatever burdens you carry or joys you celebrate, know that you are not alone—God is with you, and we are here to walk with you in faith and fellowship.

Our community gathers regularly to celebrate the Holy Mass. You are most welcome to join us at any of our services

Each Mass is a moment to encounter Christ in Word and Sacrament, and to be strengthened as members of His Body.

If you have any questions or would like to speak with a priest or member of our parish team, please do not hesitate to reach out. May you find here a home of prayer, comfort and belonging.

With every blessing, From Fr. Patrick Adusei Poku CSSp Parish Priest
