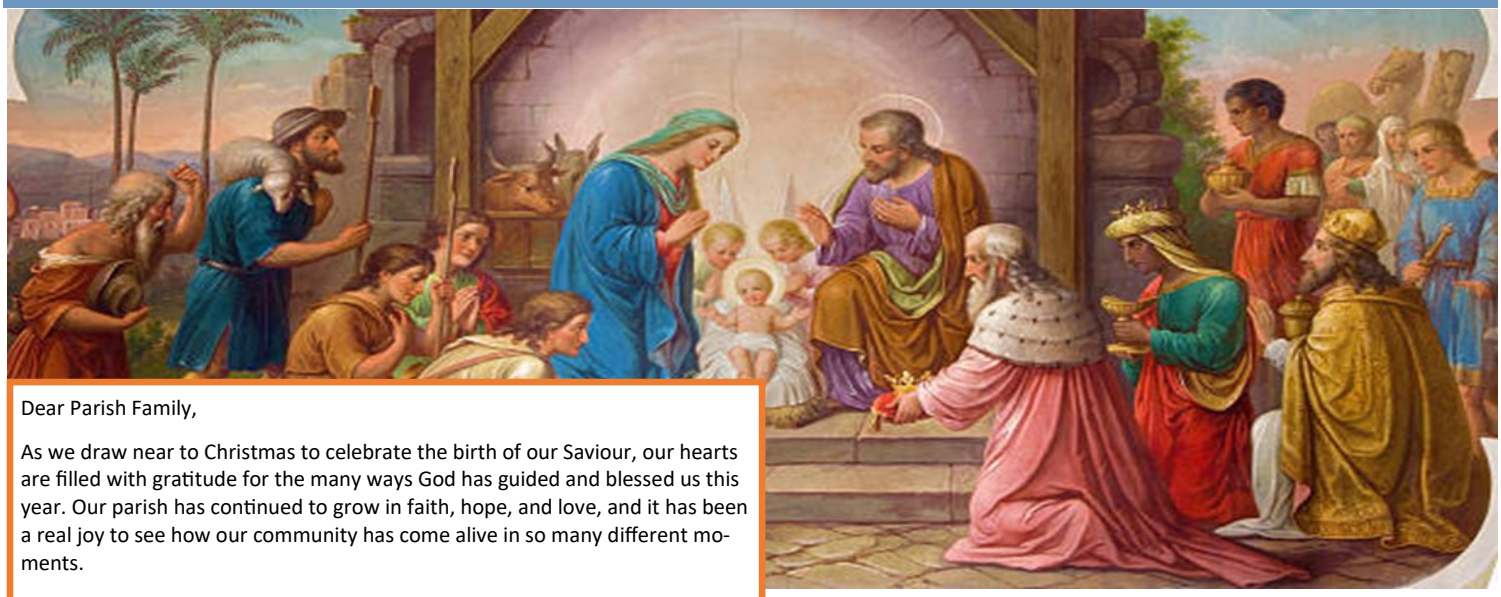
ST. AIDAN OF LINDISFARNE ROMAN CATHOLIC PARISH OF WESTMINSTER

PARISH NEWSLETTER

28th December 2025



Dear Parish Family,

As we draw near to Christmas to celebrate the birth of our Saviour, our hearts are filled with gratitude for the many ways God has guided and blessed us this year. Our parish has continued to grow in faith, hope, and love, and it has been a real joy to see how our community has come alive in so many different moments.

We have celebrated the welcome of new brothers and sisters through the RCIA, rejoiced at Baptisms, and shared the happiness of First Holy Communions. These occasions have reminded us how God continues to bring fresh life into our parish family. Throughout the year we have prayed together at Pentecost, gathered for the All-Souls November Mass, and lifted our voices at our joint Christmas Carol Service.

At our All-Souls Mass, we held in prayer all our loved ones who have gone before us, and we also took a moment to remember with affection the parishioners who have died during this past year. We keep them, and their families, close to our hearts and continue to commend them to the mercy and peace of Christ. These moments of remembrance, along with our celebrations, have drawn us closer to one another and to the Lord.

Our parish life has been enriched by the generosity and dedication of so many people. Readers, ministers of the Eucharist, tea and coffee teams, children's liturgy leaders, catechists, musicians, cleaners, altar servers, and all who quietly help in so many ways: your kindness keeps our parish warm, welcoming, and vibrant. We have enjoyed moments that strengthened our sense of belonging, including the Parish Day and the wonderful One Hope Project youth event that we jointly hosted to raise funds for our Youth Group, which continues to flourish.

Fr Patrick would also like to say that although he has only been with us since the summer, he already feels very much at home in the parish, and together with the other priests he looks forward to continuing to pray and work alongside you all in Christ's name.

As we look forward to the coming year, we pray that 2026 will be filled with God's grace. May this Christmas bring you and your loved ones joy, holiness, and peace.

With love and blessings, Fr Patrick and the Parish Team

Dear Friend in Christ,

Welcome to St. Aidan's Church! Whether you are visiting for the first time, returning after some time away, or simply seeking a quiet moment with God, we are truly blessed by your presence. This is a sacred space where hearts are lifted, prayers are heard, and lives are renewed by the grace and love of our Lord.

Here in this house of prayer, we invite you to take time to reflect, to find peace in silence, and to open your heart to God, who knows you, loves you, and walks with you always. Whatever burdens you carry or joys you celebrate, know that you are not alone—God is with you, and we are here to walk with you in faith and fellowship.

Our community gathers regularly to celebrate the Holy Mass. You are most welcome to join us at any of our services

Each Mass is a moment to encounter Christ in Word and Sacrament, and to be strengthened as members of His Body.

If you have any questions or would like to speak with a priest or member of our parish team, please do not hesitate to reach out. May you find here a home of prayer, comfort and belonging.

With every blessing, From Parish Priest: Fr. Patrick Adusei Poku CSSp
