The Solemnity of Christ the King reminds us that Jesus is both a shepherd and a king. He leads with love, cares for the weak, and calls his followers to do the same.

The first reading from Ezekiel describes God as a shepherd who seeks out the lost, heals the injured, and brings back those who have strayed. This image shows that God is not distant. He is actively involved in the lives of his people, guiding and protecting them. This reading also speaks of justice. God will judge between sheep and goats, between the weak and the strong. He will not allow the powerful to take advantage of others. This challenges us to think about our own actions. Do we care for those who are struggling, or do we ignore them? Being part of Christ's flock means more than just believing in him. It means following his example. If Jesus is our shepherd, then we are also called to shepherd others. This could mean offering support to someone in need, encouraging someone who is struggling, or simply being present for others. The Solemnity of Christ the King is a reminder that Jesus' leadership is not about control but about love. He cares for his people, and he calls them to do the same for one another. We are not just followers; we are called to continue his work in the world.

Therefore, the celebration of the Solemnity of Christ the King challenges us to follow Jesus not just in words but in actions. He invites us to care for the needy and seek justice. As we reflect on these themes, may we commit ourselves to serving others and living in his kingdom of love and truth.

PRACTICAL INFO…

When you are receiving Holy Communion on the hand, please consume it immediately while you are in front of the minister. Do not take it with you to your seat. For those who are not receiving Communion, you are welcome to come forward for a blessing. This is to be indicated by placing one or both arms on your chest. Parents you are responsible to ensure your child indicates clearly that they are to receive a blessing. If the priest or the Eucharistic Minister are unsure they will give a blessing.

When coming to Church, we need to dress appropriately as we are in a place of worship. Please make sure that you not wearing anything with a low neckline, sleeveless garments which expose the shoulders, clothing that exposes the knees or upper legs (whether sitting or standing), clothing that exposes the stomach or back, or clothing made of see-through material; also avoid excessively tight clothing.

PARISH INFORMATIONS AND NOTICES

DAMAGES IN CHURCH: We have unfortunately noticed more and more that items around the Church are damaged or broken and we come to know when it is a bit too late. More recently, the plug of one of the contactless donations has been broken. This is not a damage that may have not been noticed, the USB port was completely snapped off and this can only happen through the use of force. As always, no one seems to know what happened. This is an invitation to parishioners and visitors to try be more careful but also show more care to our Church. There are many among us who do everything possible to care for the place and acts like these are disrespectful towards the hard work that they put in.

CATECHISTS MEETING: There will be a meeting for all catechists on Saturday 28 at 10:30 am. This meeting will help us finalise arrangements for both First Holy Communion and Confirmation classes. The meeting is also open for those who have expressed an interest in joining the team.

ST FRANCIS XAVIER DAY: On 3 December, feast of St Francis Xavier, Mass will be celebrated at 7 pm. This will be the only Mass for that day.

CARITAS ADVENT CALENDAR: Like every Year Caritas has produced an advent calendar with the aim of helping those in need. s. The calendar invites us all to put our faith into action by donating an essential item each day during Advent, helping to support local food banks, pantries and other community food projects throughout the winter months. The calendar can be accessed at: https://caritaswestminster.org.uk/wp-content/uploads/2026/11/2026-Caritas-Westminster-Advent-Giving-Calendar.pdf
