Dear Friends, the Funeral Rites for Fr John were a fitting tribute to him and a source of consolation to everyone who will miss him. May he now rest in peace and rise in glory. I would like to thank the many people who were involved in planning the funeral and organising the warm welcome we gave to Fr John's family and friends, his brother priests including Cardinal Vincent and Bishop John Sherrington and the many mourners who came to pray for him. It was a real team effort by our servers, ushers, welcomers, flower arrangers and sacristans as well as the brave car park crew. All went so prayerfully and so smoothly. Such big events remind us of what we can do as a parish and how we can make a difference. Well done and thank you!

Fr Paul
