Today's Gospel reminds us that God has entrusted His vineyard—our lives, families, communities, and world—to our care. The question is not whether we have received gifts, but what we do with them. God expects us to produce fruits of love, justice, forgiveness, and faithfulness. Like the tenants in the Gospel, we can become possessive and forget that everything ultimately belongs to God. Let us welcome Christ, the Son sent by the Father, and allow Him to transform our hearts. May our lives bear good fruit and give glory to God.
