KNOW YOUR FAITH

Excerpts taken from The Penny Catechism by Tan Books

When we say, "Deliver us from evil" what do we pray for? We pray that God may free us from all evil, both of soul and body.

Should we ask the Angels and Saints to pray for us? Yes, because they are our friends and brethren, and because their prayers have great power with God.

How can we show that the Angels and Saints know what passes on earth? From the words of Christ: "There shall be joy before the Angels of God upon one sinner doing penance." (Luke 15:10)

First Sunday of Advent

Advent is a time of preparation that directs our hearts and minds to Christ's second coming at the end of time and to the anniversary of Our Lord's birth at Christmas. The first purple candle, which we light today, symbolises hope. Known as the "Prophecy Candle" in remembrance of the prophets, especially Isaiah, who foretold the birth of Christ. It represents hope; the expectation felt in anticipation of the coming Messiah.

Prayer for the sick and housebound

Father, we thank you for the gift of your Son in the Eucharist. We now place before you all our sick parishioners, at home or in hospital, and for bereaved families. As they share in this Eucharist with us, we pray that they may come to know the depth of your love for them and the joy, peace, and healing, of your presence. We make our prayer through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Any items for the newsletter need to be received by the office by Friday 12pm of that week.
