Reflection from Father Hilary. Getting God Right (10)

A final piece but one on this essential, ever-urgent and most exhilarating subject. Getting God wrong has terrible consequences for a person's whole life and the human race. We must help others and ourselves to get Him right, evermore right!

As the Holy Spirit is the Bond of Unity between the Father and Son, so He is that Bond uniting us to the Son and the Father making us sons and daughters of God the Father as we share all that the Son is and has. What a mind-boggling statement! Yet, it is the very core of our Faith. We are already brought up into the life of the Blessed Trinity. We live in the Trinity. The Trinity lives in us. The implications of this Unity for healing the appalling disunity in the human race are immense. Please think of that a lot.

There are people who are very vague about God. They're not sure – usually they call themselves agnostics. There are atheists too but have the "earned" that title?! Often the kind of God they don't believe in is the kind of God you and I don't believe in either! But many such people genuinely seek Truth, Beauty, Love, Goodness and have high moral standards. In this way they are showing a faith in God, though implicitly. These are the powerful realities which deep down every person is made for and longs for even if they don't realise it. Only in God do such realities find their perfection. God has been wonderfully described as the Hound of Heaven, pursuing us and longing for us all. We, too, all of us, crave for Him. We're made that way. And thinking again of the Immanence of God in Section (3). He has willed us to work with Him to promote His Justice and Peace in the world. His Truth, His Beauty, His Love, His Goodness, to be spread throughout the human race. God is not remote. By the incarnation He is more immanent than ever! Now, that's getting God right! What an immense and ever-urgent task – but how thrilling and supremely exciting.
Spread the Good News!

Please Keep
