THE HOLY FATHER'S PRAYER INTENTION

January: For the right to an education. Let us pray for migrants, refugees and those affected by war, that their right to an education, which is necessary to build a better world, might always be respected.

February: For vocations to the priesthood and religious life. Let us pray that the ecclesial community might welcome the desires and doubts of those young people who feel a call to serve Christ's mission in the priesthood and religious life.

SEMINARIAN JOSHUA WRITES:

This week, we are invited to meditate on Christ as the fulfilment of the Word and it is for this reason that it is occasionally referred to as "Sunday of the Word of God". This also marks my final week in Wapping following a thoroughly enjoyable January placement. If you would indulge me, I would like to share some reflections on the theme of openness to the Word of God in this parish.

Firstly, it would be remiss of me not to acknowledge the sheer breadth of participation across the parish in service of the Word. I was privileged to attend a children's catechesis session last week and my seminary formation was put to the test with questions about the Big Bang and CMBR! This focus on catechesis has become a priority for the Church, with the Synod Fathers encouraging "special attention" so that catechesis can continuously re-orient us on mission. I was also pleased to hear that St Patrick's has a Bible Timeline course. Bible in a Year was pivotal in my discernment journey and I would recommend the programme highly to anyone who might be interested.

I think above all, however, the primordial disposition required to more fully be open to the Word of God is one of love, and that is undeniably something that I have sensed here. The love that all of you have for each other, for your priests, and for God and His Church is palpable. I recall at times being taken aback at the generous charity of the volunteers, of which there are too many to thank individually. It is this very love, which as St Augustine wrote, will "prepare our eyes to see God". We know from the Catechism of the Catholic Church that "by love, God has revealed Himself and given Himself to man" so by growing in love for one another, we can be confident of a more profound understanding of His Revelation. I pray that the love displayed within the parish continues to radiate far and wide, confident that it is through this that we will all become more open to the Word of God. Please remember me in your prayers and be assured that I shall be praying for you all, Joshua.

PARISH NOTICES

Requiem Mass for Terence Bruin RIP – This Friday 12noon. Please pray for the happy repose of his soul and for his family.

Fr Andrew is away for a few days, returning this Thursday. Thank you to Fr Daniele for looking after the parish during his absence.

Next Sunday: The Presentation of the Lord (or Candlemas) – Commemorating the presentation of the child Jesus in the Temple, forty days after his birth, and this year the feast falls on a Sunday. Each of the Sunday Masses will begin, as is traditional, with the blessing of candles. If you have candles at home you use for prayer, you might like to bring them with you to Mass next weekend to be blessed.

Luke: The Story of Salvation Fulfilled – Our latest Bible Timeline study begins on Monday 10th February, 7pm, in the Presbytery. The Gospel of Luke, which we are reading at Sunday Mass this year, takes us on a journey that begins with the foretelling of the birth of St John the Baptist and culminates in the ascension of Jesus into heaven. Over eight weeks, we will witness key moments in salvation history including the Annunciation, the Nativity, the public ministry of Jesus, his suffering, death, and glorious Resurrection. There are parables found only in Luke, including the Prodigal Son, the Good Samaritan, and the rich man and Lazarus, showing us the mercy and compassion that Jesus has for each one of his children. We collect donations for Bow Foodbank (non-perishable items only): cereal, soup, pasta, rice, tinned food, lentils, beans, tea/coffee, biscuits, UHT milk, fruit juice, toiletries and hygiene products. Why not pick up something extra each week in your shopping and leave it in the box at the back of church when you come to Mass? Thank you!
