FR DANIELE WRITES:

The Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul reminds us of the two pillars of the Church, united in their love for Christ and their mission, even though they were so different in personality and background.

Saint Peter, the fisherman, was the first to confess Jesus as the Messiah. Though he denied Jesus in a moment of fear, he became the "rock" upon which Christ built His Church. His life reminds us that God's mercy can transform weakness into strength when we say yes to His call.

Saint Paul, once a persecutor of Christians, became the greatest missionary of the early Church. After encountering the risen Christ on the road to Damascus, he spent his life proclaiming the Gospel with passion and enduring great suffering for the sake of Christ.

Though they followed different paths, both Peter and Paul gave their lives in Rome, shedding their blood for the faith. Their martyrdom is a powerful witness that the Church is built not just on words, but on the total gift of life.

On this feast, the Church also highlights a very practical way we can express unity with the Pope and the universal Church—Peter's Pence.Peter's Pence is a special collection taken up around the world near June 29th. It dates to the 8th century and is a way for Catholics to support the Holy Father's charitable efforts and the administrative work of the Vatican. The money collected helps the Pope respond to emergencies—natural disasters, humanitarian crises, and support for the poor and vulnerable in various countries. By giving to Peter's Pence, we participate in the Church's global mission of mercy, standing in solidarity with those who suffer, and helping the Pope to be a visible sign of Christ's compassion to the world.

Fr. Daniele

Corpus et Sanguis Christi

May the divine love of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus fill each of you, Fr Andrew.

THE HOLY FATHER'S PRAYER INTENTION

June: That the world might grow in compassion. Let us pray that each one of us might find consolation in a personal relationship with Jesus, and from his Heart, learn to have compassion on the world.

July: For formation in discernment. Let us pray that we might again learn how to discern, to know how to choose paths of life and reject everything that leads us away from Christ and the Gospel.

Foodbank – At the back of church is a box for donations to Bow Foodbank. Foodbanks provide boxes of food to people who would otherwise go hungry for a range of reasons, from benefit delays to receiving an unexpected bill on a low income. We collect donations for Bow Foodbank (non-perishable items only): cereal, soup, pasta, rice, tinned food, lentils, beans, tea/coffee, biscuits, UHT milk, fruit juice, toiletries and hygiene products. Why not pick up something extra each week in your shopping and leave it in the box at the back of church when you come to Mass? Thank you!

Livestreaming – A reminder that Mass is livestreamed most days on our YouTube channel. The camera is focussed on the sanctuary, to avoid capturing images of the people at Mass. However, those standing in the front two pews are occasionally visible, as is the procession to Holy Communion. Any questions, speak to Fr Andrew.

Catholic Listeners Telephone Helpline – Catholic Listeners is a new confidential listening helpline, set up for those who are returning to the faith. Although not a counselling service, they have a professional team trained on signposting to other services and agencies. They aim to help those in need of a safe space to talk: 0800 448 0704.

The St Katharine and Wapping Safer Neighbourhood Ward Panel has a website: www.skw-wardpanel.org. It contains information and links for reporting anti-social behaviour to Tower Hamlets and the Police, information about Streetlink for reporting rough sleepers, and local news and upcoming events. We also recommend that Wapping residents register for OWL ('Online Watch Link'), to stay updated with local security advice and information and incident reports: www.owl.co.uk. As a local community, it is good for us to be connected together and to look out for each other.
