Luke 10:25-37

The parable of the Good Samaritan is told by Jesus in the Gospel of Luke. [Lk 10:25–37] It is about a traveler (implicitly understood to be Jewish) who is stripped of clothing, beaten, and left half dead alongside the road. First, a Jewish priest and then a Levite come by, but both avoid the man. Finally, a Samaritan happens upon the traveler. Although Samaritans and Jews despised each other, the Samaritan helps the injured man. Jesus is described as telling the parable in response to a provocative question from a lawyer, "And who is my neighbor?", in the context of the Great Commandment. The conclusion is that the neighbor figure in the parable is the one who shows mercy to the injured fellow man—that is, the Samaritan.

New Appointment, Sacred Heart, Berkhamsted

We are delighted to welcome Father Joseph Okoro as the new Parish Priest for Sacred Heart at Berkhamsted, from Thursday 1st September 2022.

Father Joseph comes to us from Feltham, Middx where he held the role of Assistant Priest. I am sure you will all give him a huge, warm welcome when he joins us in September.

Moving parishes is always a great upheaval and as this is Father Joseph's first role as Parish Priest, we know you will be supportive and open your hearts to him.

Most importantly, please keep him in your prayers as he begins his ministry with us.

Finally, for those going away on a summer holiday, please have a safe journey, and a relaxing and peaceful time. God Bless You.

Fr. Sean.
