

Sacred Heart Church, Berkhamsted

✠ The 12th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year A, 25th June 2023

Because we live in anxious, troubling times, where so many people around the world are suffering intolerably, today's readings can speak especially to us.

Jeremiah, in the First Reading, reflects on how his preaching has brought him suffering and isolation. Yet 'the Lord is at my side, a mighty hero.'

The Psalms cry out in anguish, but like Jeremiah, trusts that the Lord will answer with 'help that never fails.'

St Paul considers how sin and death hold sway in the world, but Christ has gained for us the abundant free gift of divine grace. (Second Reading).

In the Gospel, Jesus twice tells his disciples, 'Do not be afraid'. Suffering will come their way, but the Father will always care tenderly for them.

Our lives, and those of our loved ones too, can be weighed down by fears, concerns or pain. May we strive this week to place our trust in the Lord, who is the 'strength of his people'.
