PREPARING FOR MY FUNERAL – One certain fact is that one day we all will die. But as Christians our faith is that for the Lord's faithful, in death life is changed not ended. Our great hope is that we will be redeemed from death by Christ's great victory and that as we are united with Christ by sharing in a death like his so we may also be one with him in his resurrection. Catholics will want to ensure that their funeral service reflects this, their hope and the faith of the Church. However it can be very difficult for our next of kin to make detailed arrangements for our funeral at the same time as dealing with the grief and loss they will experience at our passing It can therefore be a real help to others when we ourselves give thought to our funeral arrangements ahead of time and let them know what our preferences are so that when the time comes they can be taken account of to the fullest degree practicable. Making such preparations can give us peace of mind too and be an occasion for finding a new assurance of faith by reflecting on passages from scripture and hymns. At the back of St Joseph's Church are 'Preparing for my funeral' forms which you may find helpful to use as a guide when considering your preferences or to start a conversation with your loved ones.

'Rejoice and be glad, for your rewards will be great in heaven'

Amen*
