Imagine that on this day Jesus sends you and several dozen of your fellow parishioners to nearby towns or neighbourhoods to spread the gospel. Today we hear Jesus do just that with seventy-two of his disciples. He empowers them to call for repentance, heal the sick, drive out demons, and preach of the kingdom of God. "The harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few," he tells them then and us now. May God's word inspire us to spread the Good News and may the Eucharist nourish and sustain us as we labour in the fields of the Lord.
In our readings, difficulties are many, but our reward is great. Isaiah finds comfort in Jerusalem, our spiritual home, despite the fact that at the time it lay in ruins, leading the Israelites to mourn its prior greatness. Paul bears the marks of his persecution but boasts in the saving cross. Jesus sends his disciples out like lambs among wolves, but they return rejoicing with their success. Whatever our difficulties are today, may we, like all the earth, cry out to God with joy

Sea Sunday. Seafarers and fishers play a vital role in all of our lives, but they often work in difficult, hazardous conditions. Sea Sunday is Sunday 13th July. It is when the Church prays for all those who live and work at sea. Your support will make a big difference to seafarers and fishers in need. You can donate in church, by visiting www.stellamaris.org.uk/donate, or by texting 'SEA' to 70460 to donate £5. This collection is vital to enable Stella Maris to continue its important work, so please give generously. There will be a Second Collection after all the Masses next weekend.

Catechists. We would like to train a team of Catechists to support our parishioners as they prepare to receive the Sacraments. Training is being offered by the Diocese in the parish in the autumn. Speak to Deacon Paul for details.

The Sacraments. If you would like your child to receive First Holy Communion (at present in Year 2 and above) or be Confirmed (at present in Year 9 and above), please ask Fr John or Deacon Paul for an Application Form for the Programmes starting in September. Please return the Forms by Sunday 20th July.
