The Lateran Basilica in Rome, the only church building whose dedication is celebrated as a feast, is an enduring symbol of the universal church. Inscribed on its façade is "omnium Urbis et orbis ecclesiarum mater et caput," meaning, "mother and head of all the churches of the city and of the world. " Originally completed in 324 CE, soon after Emperor Constantine legalized Christianity, the Lateran Basilica is a sign of the triumph of the faithful who survived underground for generations when Christians were persecuted. Although we likely are gathered in a much humbler setting today, we are nonetheless inextricably linked to this historic church – our mother church.

Pilgrim Mass. As part of the Jubilee Year there will be a mass for pilgrims in Westminster Cathedral at 2.00pm on Saturday 22nd November. This Mass is open to those who have walked the Westminster Way during the year or completed other pilgrimages (walking and otherwise), and those who would have liked to have gone on a pilgrimage but have not been able to do so. Westminster Cathedral is itself one of our Jubilee Churches, so the journey to the mass could be considered a pilgrimage in itself.
