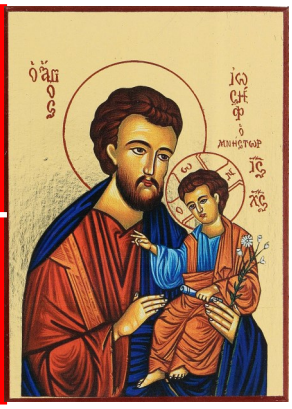
SAINTS PETER AND PAUL, Apostles (29th June 2025)



Dear Parishioners

Every five years or so, bishops from a particular country will make an 'Ad Limina' visit to Rome. This full title of that visit is 'Ad Limina Apostolorum'; literally "To the threshold of the Apostles". In Rome the great Apostles are buried, Peter in the Basilica of St Peter and Paul, in the Basilica of St Paul outside the walls (where I was ordained deacon ten years ago). The visit is a spiritual journey as well as an administrative exercise. The meeting with the Pope is an exercise of the apostolic ministry. This encounter serves to consolidate the unity which exists between the bishop of Rome and the bishops of the local churches. We are members of the universal communion which is the Catholic Church. Today we celebrate the two great Princes of the Apostles.

Peter and Paul were great men. It is common in preaching to hear about Peter's failures — his weaknesses and false steps, which the Gospels make no attempt to hide. And we first meet Paul, of course, when he is persecuting the Church. Peter and Paul were both flawed men, but nonetheless they are great men. In fact, one of the things that makes them both great is that they acknowledge their flaws. Practically the first words out of Simon Peter's mouth in the Gospel of Luke are, "Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man". In one of his letters, Paul claims to boast in his weakness.

Yet, in the Acts of the Apostles, Peter raises the dead to life. Paul becomes the most remarkable missionary in history. The faithful of Jerusalem bring their sick into the streets just so that Peter's shadow will fall upon them. And in Sunday's Gospel we hear those remarkable words from the mouth of the Lord himself, "You are Peter, and on this rock I will build my Church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it." The greatness of both Peter and Paul comes from Jesus.

The Lord does the building. He gives Simon the fisherman a new name and a new identity, and he reorients the life of Paul in every way on the road to Damascus. The greatness of these apostles comes not because they took a course in self-help or even because they refined some aspect of their personality. The theologian Hans Urs von Balthasar points out, "Simon the fisherman could have explored every region of his ego prior to his encounter with Christ, but he would not have found 'Peter'". If Simon had taken a Myers-Briggs test, the results most certainly would not have read "Prince of the Apostles." Only encountering Jesus could transform him into the new man he became.

In the dramatic story of Peter's escape from imprisonment in Sunday's first reading, the apostle does not hatch a clever plan to chisel through the wall, like an Escape from Alcatraz. Instead, he follows the promptings of the angel who appears to him, seeming almost dazed as he does so. In Paul's letter to Timothy, the apostle speaks of a kind of self-emptying, of being "poured out like a drink offering." God acts in Peter and Paul, and their greatness comes from the degree to which they are able to let go of themselves — their egos, their fears, their self-will — and cooperate with his plans for them. An article I read shortly after the election of the current successor of Peter, Pope Leo, described our new pope's leadership style with the words John the Baptist used to talk about Christ: "I must decrease so that he may increase."

Peter and Paul were unique in the role they were called to play in the foundation of the Church, but they did not keep their formula for greatness a secret. The Lord invites all of us to the same greatness, whatever the specifics of our mission here on earth may be. We are called to be saints, to let go of ourselves and let Jesus live in us.

I remember around the time of my ordination receiving a card from a good friend who just wrote "2 Corinthins 4: 7-10". When I looked it up, it said

"But we have this treasure in clay jars, so that it may be made clear that this extraordinary power belongs to God and does not come from us.We are afflicted in every way, but not crushed; perplexed, but not driven to despair; persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed; always carrying in the body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be made visible in our bodies."

The message was "God uses cracked pots and makes good use of them". We see that in today's two saints and if we look carefully, we can see that God can use us, even with all our cracks.

With all my prayers and best wishes

Fr Tom

"Take part in the steps of Leo XIV with your donation to Peter's Pence."
With these words, the Vatican is encouraging Catholics to participate in the collection to support the Holy Father in his mission at the service of the universal Church.
At the end of June, most parishes hold the Peter's Pence collection, a financial contribution that the faithful offer to the pontiff as an expression of support for the needs of the Catholic Church around the world and the charitable works it carries out. This weekend on the Solemnity of St Peter and St Paul we will have a second collection for Peter's Pence

A Message from Hervé

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ
As I write these lines, only a few days remain before my ordination on the 5th of July. This marks the end of a 4-year process, which has been rich in blessings, spiritual growth and hard work.
Though the formation has been demanding and thorough, I am keenly aware that there is so much more to learn about active ministry. I therefore humbly ask for your patience and understanding, as I am getting up to speed over the coming months.
The word "deacon" means servant, and they are sent out to be a living sign of Christ's compassion. I receive this role as a daily invitation to serve each of you with humility and love.
Once again, I can only repeat how grateful I am for your support and prayers, and I look forward to getting to meet you as we journey together in faith. Please know I am here to walk with you. If there's anything you'd like to share: a prayer request, a personal story, a question, or a need for a blessing, I'd be glad to hear from you.
God bless,
Hervé

Readings at Vigil Mass

First reading Acts 3:1-10

In those days: Peter and John were going up to the Temple at the hour of prayer, the ninth hour. And a man lame from birth was being carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the Temple, that is called the Beautiful Gate, to ask alms of those entering the Temple. Seeing Peter and John about to go into the Temple, he asked to receive alms. And Peter directed his gaze at him, as did John, and said, 'Look at us.' And he fixed his attention on them, expecting to receive something from them. But Peter said, 'I have no silver and gold, but what I do have I give to you. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk!' And he took him by the right hand and raised him up, and immediately his feet and ankles were made strong. And leaping up, he stood and began to walk, and entered the Temple with them, walking and leaping and praising God. And all the people saw him walking and praising God, and recognised him as the one who sat at the Beautiful Gate of the Temple, asking for alms. And they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 19(18):2-3. 4-5. R5a

Their sound goes forth through all the earth.

The heavens declare the glory of God,
and the firmament proclaims the work of his hands.
Day unto day breathes forth a word,
and night unto night imparts the knowledge.

Their sound goes forth through all the earth.

No speech, no word, whose voice goes unheeded;
their sound goes forth through all the earth,
their message to the utmost bounds of the world.

Their sound goes forth through all the earth

Second reading Galatians 1:11-20

Brothers and Sisters: I would have you know that the gospel that was preached by me is not man's gospel. For I did not receive it from any man, nor was I taught it, but I received it through a revelation of Jesus Christ. For you have heard of my former life in Judaism, how I persecuted the Church of God violently and tried to destroy it. And I was advancing in Judaism beyond many of my own age among my people, so extremely zealous was I for the traditions of my fathers. But when he who had set me apart before I was born, and who called me by his grace, was pleased to reveal his Son to me, in order that I might preach him among the Gentiles, I did not immediately consult with anyone; nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were Apostles before me, but I went away into Arabia, and returned again to Damascus.

Then, after three years, I went up to Jerusalem to visit Cephas and remained with him for fifteen days. But I saw none of the other Apostles except James the Lord's brother. In what I am writing to you, before God, I do not lie!

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!
Lord, you know everything;
you know that I love you.
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Gospel John 21:15-19

The Lord be with you.
And with your spirit.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John.
Glory to you, O Lord.

When Jesus had revealed himself to his disciples and they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, 'Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these?' He said to him, 'Yes, Lord; you know that I love you.' He said to him, 'Feed my lambs.' He said to him a second time, 'Simon, son of John, do you love me?' He said to him, 'Yes, Lord; you know that I love you.' He said to him, 'Tend my sheep.' He said to him the third time, 'Simon, son of John, do you love me?' Peter was grieved because he said to him the third time, 'Do you love me?' and he said to him, 'Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my sheep. Truly, truly, I say to you, when you were young, you used to dress yourself and walk wherever you wanted, but when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and another will dress you and carry you where you do not want to go.' (This he said to show by what kind of death he was to glorify God.) And after saying this he said to him, 'Follow me.'

The Gospel of The Lord
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Readings at Sunday Mass

First reading Acts 12:1-11

In those days: Herod the king laid violent hands on some who belonged to the church. He killed James the brother of John with the sword, and when he saw that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded to arrest Peter also. This was during the days of Unleavened Bread. And when he had seized him, he put him in prison, delivering him over to four squads of soldiers to guard him, intending after the Passover to bring him out to the people. So Peter was kept in prison, but earnest prayer for him was made to God by the church.

Now when Herod was about to bring him out, on that very night, Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains, and sentries before the door were guarding the prison. And behold, an angel of the Lord stood next to him, and a light shone in the cell. He struck Peter on the side and woke him, saying, 'Get up quickly.' And the chains fell off his hands. And the angel said to him, 'Dress yourself and put on your sandals.' And he did so. And he said to him, 'Wrap your cloak round you and follow me.' And he went out and followed him. He did not know that what was being done by the angel was real, but thought he was seeing a vision. When they had passed the first and the second guard, they came to the iron gate leading into the city. It opened for them of its own accord, and they went out and went along one street, and immediately the angel left him. When Peter came to himself, he said, 'Now I am sure that the Lord has sent his angel and rescued me from the hand of Herod and from all that the Jewish people were expecting.'

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 34(33):2-3. 4-5. 6-7. 8-9. R5

From all my terrors the Lord set me free.

I will bless the Lord at all times,
praise of him is always in my mouth.
In the Lord my soul shall make its boast;
the humble shall hear and be glad.

From all my terrors the Lord set me free.

Glorify the Lord with me;
together let us praise his name.
I sought the Lord, and he answered me;
from all my terrors he set me free.

From all my terrors the Lord set me free.

Look towards him and be radiant;
let your faces not be abashed.
This lowly one called; the Lord heard,
and rescued him from all his distress.

From all my terrors the Lord set me free.

The angel of the Lord is encamped around those who fear him, to rescue them.
Taste and see that the Lord is good.
Blessed the man who seeks refuge in him.

From all my terrors the Lord set me free.

Second reading 2 Timothy 4:6-8, 17-18

Beloved: I am already being poured out as a drink offering, and the time of my departure has come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will award to me on that day, and not only to me, but also to all who have loved his appearing.

The Lord stood by me and strengthened me, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed and all the Gentiles might hear it. So I was rescued from the lion's mouth. The Lord will rescue me from every evil deed and bring me safely into his heavenly kingdom. To him be the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!
You are Peter, and on this rock I will build my Church,
and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Gospel Matthew 16:13-19

The Lord be with you.
And with your spirit.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.
Glory to you, O Lord.

At that time: When Jesus came into the district of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, 'Who do people say that the Son of Man is?' And they said, 'Some say John the Baptist, others say Elijah, and others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.' He said to them, 'But who do you say that I am?' Simon Peter replied, 'You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.' And Jesus answered him, 'Blessed are you, Simon Bar-Jonah! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father who is in heaven. And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my Church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.'

The Gospel of The Lord
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
