Let us look at Him

The herald Angels singing,
the Shepherds of Bethlehem,
the Magi from the East,
Mary and Joseph,
they all seems so, so far...
Yes, far but not over, no.

Theirs was a decisive
experience, the same for us:
to see God made man.

"And so... let us look at Him.
Let us wonder at His humility.
Contemplating Jesus, staying before Him, adoring Him in the Eucharist – said Pope Francis recently – it is not wasting time, but giving meaning to time.

To worship is not to waste time but to give meaning to time. This is important, I repeat: to worship is not to waste time, but to give meaning to time; it is rediscovering the course of life in the simplicity of a silence that nourishes the heart."

Come to "look at Him".

Every Thursday evening, in our Church, from 7-8pm,
with the young people of HAKUNA.

You can remain silent in contemplation, like Mary and Joseph.
You can sing, like the Angels from Heaven.
You can glorify and praise God, like the Shepherds of Bethlehem.
You can bow low and open your life, like the Magi from the East.

You can... looking at Him.
