JUBILEE YEAR of HOPE

In the night of Bethlehem,
two children were born.
One descending, one to ascend.
One infant, one jubilant.
One born poor, one made very rich.
One born small, one to become great.
One born naked, one with a wedding garment.
One born lost, one to be found.
One born a slave, one to be set free.
One born wounded by sorrow, one fatally healed.
One born to forgive, one to be forgiven.
One born to die, one to live forever.
One crying 'Abba', one saying 'Father'.
One true God, one true Man.
One made Man, one made God.
They met for the first time in womb.
They will meet again in the tomb.
They live together, by grace.
Two children were born.
One umbilical cord, Hope.
One is Christ, one is a Christian.
It is Christmas.
It is the Jubilee Year of Hope.

In honor.

Father Ivano
