

Bidding prayers for 27th September 2020

- 1) Let us pray for the Church that we may be united in our convictions and in love. We pray for those with responsibilities, including those ministering in our own parish community. We pray for God's kingdom here in Cockfosters, for Fr. Jean-Sébastien and those newcomers to the Parish and all established parishioners. May we continue to grow with new life and Christian commitment. Let us pray to the Lord.

- 2) Let us pray for the multiple conflicts, atrocities and trauma being lived through internationally. May fear and repression be replaced by hope, faith and charity. Let us pray to the Lord.

- 3) Let us pray for all those affected by the coronavirus crisis and that we may continue to take great care of each other during this time of restrictions and uncertainty. We remember especially students, those facing unemployment and others with particularly needs.

Let us pray to the Lord.

- 4) Let us pray for people of all faiths and for local voluntary groups seeking to strengthen our communities. This week we remember especially the parishioners of the Trinity Welsh Chapel.

Let us pray to the Lord.

- 5) Let us pray for all who are ill, including those with psychological or chronic physical conditions, and for people who have especially asked for our prayers. Let us pray to the Lord.

- 6) Let us pray for those who have died recently and for all whose anniversaries occur at this time, that they will enjoy everlasting life in your kingdom. Let us pray to the Lord.

Let us ask Our Lady, Mother of us all, to pray with us as we say ...

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee. Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

Let us pray for a few moments in silence for our own needs and intentions.
