

Cockney Rhyming Slang

Quiz Questions Week 25

1. Cockney Rhyming Slang was invented by market traders to disguise what was being said from passers-by, but in what year? 1840's, 1870's or 1920's?
2. One of the phrases they might have used is.... 'She's got nice 'bacons''. What were they referring to?
3. Or they could have said 'Hand over the 'bees''. What were they referring to?
4. If I was to ask you to loan me a monkey, what am I asking for?
5. Who was the cockney wheeler dealer TV character known for saying 'The world is your lobster'?
6. The first line of the theme tune to Only Fools & Horses is: 'Stick a pony in my pocket'. What is a pony?
7. Lock, Stock & Two Smoking Barrels is filled with cockney rhyming slang, in one scene someone says: 'No-one is watching the custard'. What is the custard?
8. In the same film, translate this: 'Someone buys an Aristotle of ping pong tiddly in the nuclear'.
9. If I have a 'cabbage' on my body, what do I have on it?
10. What is the name of the famous cockney actor who featured on Blur's 'Park Life'?