Week of the Psalter 4

28th February 2021

SECOND SUNDAY of LENT year B

During this time of Lent, we are happy to meditate with the great figure of Martin Luther King:

"I would like to urge you to give priority to the search for God. Let his Spirit fill your being. You need him to face difficulties and life trials. Before the boat that is your life reaches its destination, it will encounter lengthy and unsettled storms, raging and howling winds and rough seas, which paralyze the heart. If you do not have a deep and patient faith in God, you will be without strength to confront the delays, the disappointments and the trials and tribulations of life, which are unavoidable. Without God, all our efforts amount to ashes and our daybreaks to deep nights. Without him, life is an enormous drama from which the critical scenes are missing. But with Him, we are able to climb hectic valleys to inner peace summits and to discover radiant stars of hope within the depths of the most depressive nights of life. (...)

I would urge you to make plans large and big enough so that they escape time chains and space fetters. Give your lives, all that you have and all that you are, to the God of Universe whose plans are unchanging. (...) As we dedicate ourselves fully to Christ and to his way, we participate to this marvellous act of faith, which will lead us to the true knowledge of God."

Your donations help fund initiatives in parishes, schools and charities in three mission areas which are more critical than ever. Marriage and Family Life, Youth and Evangelisation, Caritas Westminster, Education Service. Poverty is deepening across our Diocese and the need for foodbanks and supermarket vouchers has accelerated. Through your generosity we're continuing to provide food for those people most in need. Please take a donation envelope. You can use the QR code to make your donation online.
