THANK YOU AND GOODBYE

As some of you may be aware, I have been made redundant and finished on Friday 19th August. I would like to thank each and every one of you for your kindness, good wishes and gifts extended to me. I have loved my job working with different priests for nearly fourteen years and more importantly getting to know so many of you, being of assistance or guiding some of you in times of need. I thank all those who have helped me over the years and especially during Covid times and all those who helped with the various activities. I will miss you all. I will keep you in my prayers and I hope you keep me in yours. Best wishes to you all. Florie
