Fond Farewell

After almost fourteen years as Parish Secretary, Florie will be leaving us on Friday 19th August. I am sure you will want to join me in thanking her for her dedicated service and commitment to the parish and everyone in it. For myself, I am extremely grateful to Florie for her help in familiarizing myself with the parish and its customs. Much has changed over the years and Florie has been a source of stability and continuity for which we are all incredibly grateful.

We wish Florie every success and happiness as she moves forward and assure her too of our prayers and best wishes.
