MESSAGE FROM FR JOHN

It was a great relief to learn that the prohibition of public acts of worship will be lifted at the end of the present lockdown period. We may hope that this weekend will be the last when we can do no more than open the church for private prayer on Saturday afternoon and Sunday morning. We renew our thanks to the volunteer Stewards, and look forward to welcoming back those who volunteer as Eucharistic Ministers and Readers. I shall be offering my private Masses this weekend for the intentions reserved for those dates, which are listed in the adjacent panel. Our second reading is again from the first letter of St Paul to the church he founded at Corinth. Last weekend we studied a passage from near the end of that letter, but this extract comes just after the opening greeting. In this letter Paul has to deal with many human problems in the community at Corinth, but he begins by praising them for their preparedness for the coming of Jesus in judgment.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION – a prayer for all who are unable to receive Holy Communion in person

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Holy Sacrament of the altar. I love you above all things and I passionately desire to receive you into my soul. Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, come spiritually into my soul so that I may unite myself wholly to you now and forever. Amen.
