MESSAGE FROM FR JOHN

It is with great joy, and great relief, that we resume our public celebration of Mass this weekend. We renew our thanks to the volunteer Stewards, and welcome back those who volunteer as Readers and Eucharistic Ministers. We may also begin our preparation for the celebration of Christmas in our church. Details of these are in the adjacent panel, as are the intentions for the Masses this weekend.

Our second reading is another warning that we should always be prepared and ready for the coming of Jesus, and should not relax our efforts because this has not already happened. It is from a letter which bears the name of St Peter, but which was almost certainly written by a follower of the apostle, many years after his death. The writer describes this day of the Lord's coming in vivid language, and exhorts us to continue to lead our lives without spot or stain, so that we may be at peace when he comes.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION – a prayer for all who are unable to receive Holy Communion in person

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Holy Sacrament of the altar. I love you above all things and I passionately desire to receive you into my soul. Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, come spiritually into my soul so that I may unite myself wholly to you now and forever. Amen.
