SPIRITUAL COMMUNION – a prayer for all who are unable to receive Holy Communion in person

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Holy Sacrament of the altar. I love you above all things and I passionately desire to receive you into my soul. Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, come spiritually into my soul so that I may unite myself wholly to you now and forever. Amen.

MESSAGE FROM FR JOHN

Many thanks to all who came in such good numbers last Saturday and gave your time to ensure that the church grounds are prepared for the winter. Our thanks to Louise for providing refreshments and the not-so-light lunches. Our thanks also go to all arranged the refreshments after Mass last Sunday morning. The attendance at all the events for Remembrance Sunday weekend was impressive and uplifting.

Our first two readings this weekend are both examples of the kind of writing called apocalyptic, in which visions of future events are given to a human seer by a heavenly messenger. Our second reading is from the book that has the name 'Apocalypse'. Just after the beginning of the book the author sends greetings from Jesus Christ to his readers, and gives praises to Jesus in words taken from famous passages in the Old Testament. Jesus is said to be coming on the clouds like the Son of Man in our first reading, and a few sentences later the author sees Jesus in a vision and describes him as 'Son of Man'.

MANY THANKS

To all who came along last Saturday to help with the gardening. Nearly 20 parishioners worked hard; pruning, weeding and tidying the church grounds, ready for winter. Special thanks to Louise for providing refreshments and a delicious lunch for the workers.

Many thanks also to Fabian, who recently organised the transformation of the patio area at the rear of the Hall.

THURSDAY CLUB

10am Mass each week followed by refreshments in the Hall.

Do join us for a cuppa and a chat if you have some free time on Thursday mornings.

Everyone welcome!

SYNOD PRAYER

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name. With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts; Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it. We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder. Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions. Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right. All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.
