Dear Parishioners

"'Be ready because the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect"

This week Jesus reminds us that no one can be sure about the time and circumstances of his or her death and is therefore encouraged to be prepared for that final encounter with God at the end of our earthly journey. God will want to see that we have kept our personal relationship with him by a desire to grow in holiness. Such a growth is possible by daily talking to him and listening to him in Bible reading, by asking for the guidance of the Holy Spirit every day, offering our lives on the altar and getting spiritual nourishment in Holy Communion during the Holy Mass, being reconciled with God every day, asking for pardon and forgiveness with a repentant heart and seeking forgiveness through the Sacrament of Confession for our sins, by seeing the face of Jesus in everyone and by serving all people around us, sacrificially sharing our blessings with them.

God Bless You, Fr Martin
