Fr Ennio spent most of his Missionary activity in Sierra Leone, Africa and lived in the Xaverian Missionaries' Community in Nether Street for 2 long periods in the 1970s and was the Rector there from the 1990s until his ill health led his superiors in Scotland to ask Fr Kevin Ryan to take over in 2006. During these times he said Mass in our parish every weekend and served the Paris whenever the then Parish Priest, Fr Pat Cassidy, was away. He was a close friend of Fr Cassidy and of many of our parishioners who admired his piety and courage.

He died in the Xaverians' care home in Parma, Italy where he had spent his final years. May he rest in peace.'
