

THE GOSPEL
Luke 10:25-37

He said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbour?"

Lord,
we love you.
Expand our hearts.
Let us love our neighbours.

Make us brave enough to cleanse wounds,
to give shelter when it is needed,
to help pay the bills and
give our helping hands.

When we love you
in our neighbour,
let us find
you
in ourselves.

SECOND COLLECTION – APOSTLESHIP of the SEA

This is a Catholic charity supporting seafarers worldwide. provide practical and pastoral care to all seafarers, regardless of nationality, belief or race. Their port chaplains and volunteer ship visitors welcome seafarers, offer welfare services and advice, practical help, care and friendship. The Apostleship of the Sea in Great Britain is part of an international network known to the maritime world as Stella Maris, working in more than 250 ports around the world. 90% of world trade is transported by ship. However the life of a modern seafarer can be dangerous and lonely. They may spend up to a year at a time away from home, separated from their family and loved ones and often working in harsh conditions. The Apostleship of the Sea relies wholly on voluntary contributions. They are only able to continue their work through the generous donations of our supporters and volunteers.

Next week's Second Collection will be for the St. Vincent de Paul Society.

WELCOME

We extend a very warm welcome to Fr. Emmanuel, who will be with us for the next few months.
