The Pallottines

The Pallottine spiritual/apostolic family was founded in Rome, by St. Vincent Pallotti (1795-1850). Recognizing the problems and the potential of the Church of his time Pallotti sought a renewal of faith and a re-igniting of love and hope among the faithful. He gave special emphasis to the fact that every Christian has from Jesus a mission in the Church and in the world. Aware that bishops, priests, and religious alone cannot carry total responsibility for evangelization, Pallotti insisted that lay people, too, have the obligation and the right to actively participate in the mission of the Church. To this end, he founded the Union of Catholic Apostolate in 1835, bringing together priests, men and women religious, and lay people in order to collaborate in the apostolic mission of Jesus Christ—of living and spreading the Good News in whatever way they are able. Pallotti wrote, "Anyone can excel in the good of the apostolate and can indeed even exceed the achievements of the Apostles, because God judges the perfection and value of the work of his creatures according to the intentions of their hearts and according to the abilities of each."

The Society of the Catholic Apostolate (Pallottine Fathers & Brothers), who minister in the Our Lady of the Visitation Parish, was founded to support and promote the work of the Union. Members of the Union are present in 49 countries and engage in many apostolates including parish ministry, evangelization, retreat facilitation, education, hospital chaplaincy, spiritual direction, caring for those with disabilities, etc. We continue to see our mission as supporting, promoting and fostering cooperating among all the baptized in their apostolic calling with in the mission and life of the Church. Let us all pray with St. Vincent:

"My God, my Mercy, my Paradise, you have given me the desire to work for Your glory and for the salvation of souls; increase this desire in me so that I do not wish anything other than a infinitely burning flame for all that contributes to Your glory and to the salvation of my neighbour. My God, act in me as you will. Expand my desires. Give me the grace to act as You will...in the same way that You act."
