

The Gospel
Mark 1:21-28

The people were astonished at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority and not as the scribes.

Dear God,
our hope is that you will amaze us;
win us with your words;
and spellbind us with your love.

And let us,
with you,
cast out unclean spirits
from this world:
human trafficking,
the pandemic,
the climate crisis,
racial bias,
poverty,
greed,
war.

Make the
unclean spirits obey you,
in our small efforts.

THE FOURTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME
(YEAR B)
31st JANUARY 2021

Tuesday 2nd February
the Feast of The Presentation of the Lord, (Candlemas Day).

Due to social distancing, it will not be possible to bless individual candles, so there will be a general blessing of candles during the 12.00 noon Mass.

During the season of Lent this year,
(Ash Wednesday is on 17th February),
instead of giving up something,
why not do something extra:

Multiplication

*The man gave a pound, he said it was not much,
but I told him: "not true, ten days a child will lunch!"*

*"Ten days a child will lunch" says he "for a single pound?"
"It is truly true" I reply "my counting is sound."*

*"Amazing" he says but how come the cost so low?"
"Volunteers, working steadily, always ready on the go."*

*"Then", says he, "let us tell the world of this chance,
to change the planet and humanity to advance."*

*"Yes", says I "It is to be told but I cannot do it all".
"Can I help?" he asked "to make that call."*

*Now he tells very many "Ten lunches for a pound."
Now more people respond for this truth he has found.*

*A man gave a pound, he said it was not much,
but with solid true love it grew into a bunch.*
