We are witnesses to the resurrection.

William Barclay a renowned scripture scholar once called the gifts which God gave to Jesus the seven great possessions of the victorious Risen Lord. These are: power, riches, wisdom, strength, honour, glory and praise. At Mass this weekend the reading from the last book of the bible reminds us of the victory of Christ and these possessions.

As benefactors of the triumph of Jesus, believers are privileged to share in these seven great possessions as well. Isaiah pictures the innocent servant as a lamb being led to the slaughter. In each Eucharistic celebration, the Lamb of God is invoked three times as the assembly admits its need for forgiveness. Lamb of God who takes away the sins, who conquers evil, who shares your triumph...have mercy on us....grant us peace.

The celebrated English composer George F. Handel in his impressive oratorio The Messiah invokes with splendid music these seven gifts at the end of his masterpiece which we can find on iphone or computer.

So at the conclusion of the bible the Scripture tells again that the Glory of God is what awaits believers and the worship of God is indeed the meaning of Heaven. Let us pray for our dead that they might enjoy this victory as we journey to the Victorious God. Amen Alleluia

Catholic Listeners: A new confidential listening helpline will launch this month.

Catholic Listeners, Diocese of Westminster, has been set up for those who are returning to the faith. The helpline is all about listening to others, listening to those who might have become isolated due to the pandemic. This service is based on the Landings ethos of compassionate listening. Although we are not a counselling service, we have a professional team trained on signposting to other services and agencies. Sometimes just communicating with someone who listens and understands can help clarify a way forward. Simply talking about a problem can ease a burden. We aim to help those in need of a safe space to talk. For further information please contact Ade at Catholiclisteners@gmail.com We are here to listen 0800 448 0704
