There has been much discussion in the media recently about 'assisted suicide', whereby people who feel they are overburdened by suffering will be facilitated in bringing their lives to a premature end by a change in legislation. The Catholic Church opposes this.

As Catholics, along with many people of other faiths and none, we share a different vision about what it is to be fully human, especially when we are suffering and approaching death in the hope of eternal life. People who are coming towards the end of their lives can feel vulnerable, and recent research shows that many consider themselves a burden on their loved ones and wider society. Jesus shows us that life always has dignity and that there is no such thing as a useless life. We are called to defend this gift of life to its natural end and to protect vulnerable citizens from a culture that could pressure them into assisted suicide. We support people with the companionship of a listening ear, appropriate treatment, and the best of care, so that their last days can be times of grace, intimacy and love.

Jesus did not send the sick away. Our Lady remained at the foot of the Cross to the very end as Her Son, Jesus, died. Mary is the model of compassionate presence and prayer whom we are called to imitate. People close to death and their loved ones, often go through similar darkness and pain but can come to a more complete acceptance and find peace in those treasured last moments accompanied by spiritual care.

Restore Nature Now Demonstration:

Join BBC wildlife programmes presenter Chris Packham and tens of thousands of people in London on Saturday 22nd June, to call on all political parties to take action to restore nature in the UK - one of the worst nations for nature loss. Backed by a wide range of nature, wildlife and climate groups, as well as Christian Climate Action and Laudato Si' Movement, the demonstration aims to be the biggest-ever gathering of nature supporters in the UK.

Gather at Park Lane, London, W1K, between 12 noon and 1pm. From there the march will take a predetermined route through the city before ending in Parliament Square by 4.30pm. This includes time for speakers and other programming. Stewards will be in place from 11:00am. See the website:

<https://extinctionrebellion.uk/restore-nature-now/>

To join with other Christians, meet at 11am at Farm Street Catholic Church of the Immaculate Conception, 114 Mount

Street, Mayfair, London W1K 3AH. More information from Christian Climate Action: <https://christianclimateaction.org/2024/04/30/restore-nature-now-march-and-creation-cries-out-service/>
