Asylum seekers and refugees at the Catholic Worker Farm

The asylum seekers and refugees at The Catholic Worker Farm, Maple Cross have been expressing their gratitude for all the wonderful Christmas presents this parish contributed. The Farm often receives donations of food but there are many specific household items they have to buy such as those listed below. This may vary from month to month. We'd like to get going on it asap as obviously they're struggling this winter with heating bills etc.

Items for March:

Long life milk
Long life juice
Toilet paper
Cleaning supplies
Washing machine pods
Washing up liquid
Dishwasher detergent or tablets
Dishwasher salt
Rinse aid
Plastic wrap

Vegetables

Southern Dioceses Environment Network - The Things That Bring You Joy, Reflections for Lent

13 March 2023, 12:45pm - 2:00pm

On Zoom ... Reflections for Lent with John Paul de Quay and David Ko.

Book with Eventbrite

We meet monthly online on the second Monday of the month and also organise occasional other events online and in-person for mutual support and encouragement. Every meeting includes input on some aspect of the climate or environment and a sharing of best practice in resources and events. Some events take place jointly with the Northern Dioceses Environment Group and guests from elsewhere are always welcome, as we all work together to animate the Catholic community in the long-term task of stabilising our climate and protecting our common home. We are inspired by the principles of Catholic Social Teaching set out by Pope Francis in the encyclical Laudato Si' and the teachings on care for the earth and one another found in the Scriptures. Participants include CAFOD and Diocesan staff and volunteers, Laudato Si' Animators, clergy, parishioners, religious and activists. All are welcome.

For more details or to be added to the mailing list please message Colette Joyce, Westminster Justice and Peace Co-ordinator, colettejoyce@rcdow.org.uk or call her on 07593 434 905

The Southern Dioceses are: Arundel & Brighton, Brentwood, Clifton, East Anglia, Plymouth, Portsmouth, Southwark and Westminster.

James Gilchrist returns to Westminster Cathedral as the Evangelist. Recognised as 'the finest Evangelist of his generation', James is one of the UK's leading tenors – a prolific and celebrated recitalist and concert soloist, his extensive repertoire embraces works spanning many centuries.

The part of Christus will be sung by Roderick Williams, one of the most sought after baritones of his generation. Roderick was awarded an OBE in June 2017 and was nominated for Outstanding Achievement in Opera in both the 2018 Olivier Awards for his performance in the title role of the Royal Opera House production of Monteverdi's Il ritorno d'Ulisse in patria and in 2019 for his role in ENO's production of Britten's War Requiem. These outstanding soloists and our world-famous choir are accompanied by a period orchestra, and directed by Master of Music, Simon Johnson.
