Asylum seekers and refugees at the Catholic Worker Farm

The asylum seekers and refugees at The Catholic Worker Farm, Maple Cross have been expressing their gratitude for all the wonderful Christmas presents this parish contributed. The Farm often receives donations of food but there are many specific household items they have to buy such as those listed below. This may vary from month to month. We'd like to get going on it asap as obviously they're struggling this winter with heating bills etc.

Items for March:

Long life milk
Long life juice
Toilet paper
Cleaning supplies
Washing machine pods
Washing up liquid
Dishwasher detergent or tablets
Dishwasher salt
Rinse aid
Plastic wrap

Vegetables

THE JOSHUA TREE TALKS

We would like also to hear from the young in our parish. What is it you are passionate about, what matters to you in life? It can be matters of the secular world or how you live by your faith, or how you view the current climate crisis. We are interested in your studies, in your aspirations - how you even managed to learn remotely during the pandemic perhaps.

Subjects of the Joshua Tree Talks for consideration by anyone could be:

What it is to be young and keep hold of faith in the world we live in

What growing old means and how to manage new challenges

How to cope (and tips) in the cost of living crisis

Retirement - what that means and how to go about it

Testimonies of faith

Film appreciation and actors you admire

Favourite authors (or poets) and their life story

Travel stories

Pilgrimages embarked on

How you overcame a major challenge in life

Up and coming Talks people have committed to already are as follows:

A Matter of Life and Death (and everything in between) - Shirley Miles (Registrar and Civil Funeral Celebrant)
(Note: this isn't as grim as it sounds, I promise)

The American Civil War and how women played their part - Marjorie Ward

A Passion for Sculpture - Fr Jim

From Home Kitchen to Co-Op Shelves (a testimony of hard work and faith) - Mariae Hackett

Classical Recordings Review - Tony Faulkner

Art, Faith & Poetry - Victor Preibys
