Anzac Day Commemoration 3.00pm Tuesday 25th April 2023 St Mary the Virgin Church Harefield

Anzac Day has been commemorated in Harefield yearly on the 25th of April every year since 1921. It commemorates the soldiers of the Australian and New Zealand Army Corps (ANZAC) who served in the Gallipoli Campaign. After World War 2, Anzac Day was broadened to include all members of the armed forces of Australia and New Zealand serving in all conflicts and peacekeeping operations. The Churchyard in St Mary's has a war cemetery that holds the graves of 112 ANZACs who were treated in Harefield on the site of the current Harefield Hospital.

St Paul's Joshua Tree Talks

The first talk, which will be at 7.00pm on Friday 28th April 2023, will be presented by Shirley Miles: "A Matter of Life and Death (and everything in between)" - a talk about her role as a Registrar and Celebrant for Hillingdon Council. Q&A to follow, along with refreshments. Come to learn, be entertained, and to socialise. Entry cost is a mere £2. We really hope to see you there.
