Proclaiming God's Word: Exploring the Ministry of Reading

31 October @ 10:00 am – 1:00 pm

£5.00

The word of God is alive and active (Heb.4:12) Our Catholic faith is alive! We practice our faith because it is an encounter, a relationship with Jesus Christ. We encounter Jesus first as the Word of God made Flesh. So God's Word must have a central place in our lives.

The Ministry of Lector (Reader) is a privileged one. Each time we read and hear God's Word, we encounter God anew. Those who proclaim God's Word in the Liturgy are more than 'readers'. We proclaim God's Word in the words of Scripture. Therefore, it is important for us to give time to our personal spiritual growth and formation. These workshops will look at the Liturgy of the Word in the context of the Mass, how the Scriptures fit into the Liturgical Year, and look at the Scriptures themselves: what's in the Bible? What's it all about? How can we better understand God's Word to enhance our proclamation and the congregation's understanding?

Date: Saturday 31st October, 2026 Time: 10.00am – 1.00pm Venue: Vaughan House, 46, Francis Street, London, SW1P 1QN
