Throughout the Church's year we celebrate some wonderful feasts which, in various ways, nourish, and strengthen, our faith. Outstanding among them are our celebrations of Christmas and Easter. As so many of you are aware we have just celebrated Easter, and what a lovely celebration we had. There are many elements to Holy Week, and lots of detail to remember and, given that we only do so once a year, that can be something of a challenge. But we were able to celebrate well because of the involvement and time of so many of you. Our gratitude is due to many people, to the flower arrangers and the church cleaners, as well as to the servers, choir and musicians, ministers of Holy Communion and Readers, and our collectors too. So many played their part in ensuring that all of our liturgies were carried out, prayerfully, and with dignity, so that our hearts were indeed raised, and our faith nourished. So a sincere 'thank you' to all who contributed to helping us to celebrate in such a wonderful way.

Our celebration of Easter is not confined to just Easter Sunday the Church gives us 50 days to celebrate this special feast. Fifty days to reflect on the wonder that Jesus has risen from the dead, and is alive and with us always. Every day of our lives is a day to celebrate the Resurrection, because Jesus is alive and with us always. No matter what befalls us, or how hard or dark, the situation, we are not alone. We can live everyday with resurrection faith, confident that Jesus the Risen Lord is with us, always a part of our lives.

CENTERING PRAYER

Introductory workshop led by Steve Pearce, regional Coordinator of contemplative outreach. Centering Prayer is a way to consent in silence to the presence and action of God, to pray from the stillness of the heart without words.

The practice can lead us to a more authentic living of the Gospel. If you would like to find out more about his method of prayer and experience it at first hand, come to the introductory workshop at St Giles Parish Centre, Bury Lane, Codicote, SG4 8XX. Sat 13th May, 10am-4pm. Suggested donation £10. Tea/coffee and biscuits provided; bring a packed lunch. For further details contact Steve Pearce, 01438 820579.
