Once again the season of Lent is almost upon us! Next Wednesday is Ash Wednesday when we begin our Lenten Journey, 40 days of prayer, fasting and almsgiving. By making some extra space for prayer we make time to be with God, to be in communion with Him. Through fasting we deny ourselves in order to support, and show solidarity, with others, especially those in need. And by Almsgiving we show an awareness of the needs of others, and support them out of our resources. The prospect of fasting and almsgiving may not necessarily be an attractive one for us, it's not without challenge. Lent though is an opportunity to say 'no' to ourselves, in order to say 'yes' to God, and 'yes' to other people; in other words to make more space in our lives for God and for others.

With the start of Lent being just a few days away the question may be: how will I mark this time, how will I use it in such a way that it will be fruitful? It can be easy, perhaps, to do what I have always done, but is that the right thing this year? In deciding what to do we need to look at our lives as they are now, at where we need to grow, in our relationships with God, and with other people, and to let that shape our resolutions. Whatever we do though, let us be wholehearted, and let us hear the call of Joel, from the Ash Wednesday reading: 'Come back to me with all your heart.'

MARRIAGE ENRICHMENT

Weekend on 11-12th March in Harpenden.

Pope Francis says "Love needs time and space; everything else is secondary. Time is needed to talk things over...to listen to one another...to appreciate one another and to build a stronger relationship."

The weekend is practical and aimed at encouraging couples to reflect on their relationship and improve the quality of their communication at all stages of their married life. It is an opportunity to stop, and in a safe place reflect on your marriage relationship so as to transform it into a thriving and joy-filled encounter.
