Few of us during our lives can avoid carrying burdens of one kind or another. And it makes no difference be they large or small, when they come our way, they can weigh heavily upon us. So it's surely reassuring when we heard Jesus in today's Gospel inviting: 'Come to me, all you who labour and are overburdened, and I will give you rest.'

Such an invitation is very comforting, all the more so as it comes from Jesus himself. Not least it tells us something about Jesus, the fact that he is interested in us, that he wants to be involved in our lives and, when we have a burden, he doesn't want us to struggle on our own to carry it, but rather he wants to take it from us, he wants to give us rest.

While Jesus wants us to know the rest that he alone can give, he is not making false promises to us, he is not saying that the Christian life is always going to be easy, that there will not be burdens or crosses to carry, or that we should not hold ourselves to high standards. Rather, he is reminding us that when we find ourselves overburdened – tired, frustrated, afraid, overwhelmed, disheartened – help is at hand. He invites us to come to him, and to unload our troubles onto him. He is a place of rest for our weary souls. With Jesus on board, our minds and hearts will be lighter, and we can focus on our tasks with renewed energy and zeal.

DEVELOPING WORLD GROUP

The Group promised to pay for the furnishing of Tabor Home, a refuge for the sick and dying in Gode, Ethiopia. On 5 July we sent £3,373 to Sister Mary Joachim who is leading the project, to fund Phase 1 (medicine trolley & cabinets, tables, chairs, sheets, towels, nightwear etc). We will now raise £2,020 for an 'oxygen concentrator' (which compresses air, removes nitrogen and delivers purified oxygen). Parishioners donated £2,127.68 between 7 June and 5 July in cash and cheques, including £1,050 from coffee/cakes/plants on 10 June, £550 from the Ladies Group's Strawberry Social on 25 June, and numerous donations. Thank you all for your great generosity.

AFFORDABLE HOUSING

A member of High Street Methodist is concerned about the lack of affordable housing in Harpenden and is interested in forming a group with a view to setting up a community land trust. For more information see:
