It's natural, understandable, that we want to make life as easy as possible. But doing things the easy way, at least when it comes to religion, to faith, may not work. This is what Jesus is warning us about in today's Gospel when he says: "If anyone comes to me without hating his father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple. Whoever does not carry his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple."

Jesus is using exaggerated language here; he doesn't really mean "hate" as we think of it. He is making it clear that following him is not easy and can never be a matter of comfort and convenience. In that sense we give up family — put him before family, which becomes easier when we realise that putting him first is actually better for the family anyway — and then deny ourselves and bear a cross.

The cross calls us to stick out our neck and get involved. Meaning that we are called not only to morality but also to action, to doing our part to share in Jesus' work of building the Kingdom of God. If we call ourselves Christians without some serious involvement in this active reaching out from whatever cross we have in our lives to bring Jesus' salvation to others, we're making our religion far too easy.

Jesus said, "whoever does not carry his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple." The cross can never be a symbol of ease and convenience. The cross challenges us not to be mediocre, but to give of our best, to give ourselves completely as Jesus did.

BEGINNING AGAIN

During the year there are different opportunities to start again. Whether it's the beginning of the Church's year in Advent, or the start of the year in January, and in September the Academic year starts again. Those opportunities to make a new start reflect our Christian faith, God constantly allowing us to make a fresh start. During this last week schools have been reopening, with pupils returning, and some starting for the first time, or in a new school. In a few weeks a number of our young people will be continuing with their education at university. We wish all of them well, and hope that this will be a fruitful time for them.

PARISH OFFICE

The Parish Office will be closed on Wednesday 11th September and will re-open on Thursday 12th September.

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION 2020

Preparation for First Communion in 2020 starts on Monday 16th September with a meeting for the Parents of all children who are being prepared. Attendance of at least one parent at this meeting is very important, and it takes place in the undercroft at 8.00pm.

CONFIRMATION 2020

Preparation to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation, for those young people in Year 9 or above, will commence in November. Application forms are available after all Masses throughout September. Completed forms and copies of the Baptismal Certificate must be returned to Melanie in the parish office by Monday 8th October please.

PHOTOGRAPHS

There are a few remaining Confirmation and First Holy Communion Photographs to be collected. They are available at the back of the Church by the repository.

TERESA LAWSON RIP

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Teresa Lawson who died recently. Teresa's Requiem Mass will be held on Thursday 26th September at 11am. We remember Teresa's family in our prayers at this time.

1st SEPTEMBER TO 4th OCTOBER IS CELEBRATED AS A SEASON OF CREATION.

'This is the season for letting our prayer be inspired anew by closeness to nature, which spontaneously leads us to give thanks to God the Creator. Saint Bonaventure, that eloquent witness to Franciscan wisdom, said that creation is the first "book" that God opens before our eyes, so that, marvelling at its order, its variety and its beauty, we can come to love and praise its Creator.'

(Extract from Pope Francis' Message for World Day of Prayer for Care of Creation)
