The Gospel today tells of how Peter is absolutely overwhelmed by the incredible catch of fish, which leads him to realise that he is present before the power of God himself. All his confidence disappears and he is overcome by his own smallness and unworthiness. He tells Jesus: "Leave me, Lord; I am a sinful man." It is, in fact, a true sign of an experience with God.

It's a reaction which we find in all three of today's readings. Isaiah says, for instance: "What a wretched state I am in! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips." Paul, not particularly known for his modesty, says: "I hardly deserve the name apostle."

In spite of that, Peter, Paul, Isaiah were all called to be apostles. The word "apostle" means a person delegated to carry out a mission on their master's behalf. Every Baptised person is called not only to be a disciple, and not just by words, but by the whole witness of what one is and does. "Here I am, send me," said Isaiah. "I have worked harder than any of the others," says Paul. "From now on, it is people you will catch", Jesus tells Peter.

It is a totally natural outcome from the faith that we have in Jesus which leads us to the unique experience and joy of knowing him and putting him unconditionally at the centre of our life. That is an experience that we must share, not because we are told to but because we cannot help doing so. True discipleship of itself overflows into apostleship. It was what happened on that day when Peter, James and John left everything and went after Jesus.

FEAST DAY

This Friday, February 11th, is the Feast of Our Lady of Lourdes, our Parish Feast Day. It's a moment to thank God for the blessings we receive in, and through, our parish; and to pray that we can continue to strive to be a living sign of God's Kingdom in this part of Hertfordshire.

Mass will be celebrated at 9.15am.

SIGN OF PEACE

Since the closure of the churches, the Sign of Peace has been suspended. The latest guidance, however, states that, if appropriate, this may now be reinstated. So, we will do so from this Sunday, but slightly differently. For the time being we will resist shaking hands, for everyone's safety and comfort. Instead, the invitation will be to make a gesture of peace to each other. That could be to say 'peace be with you' or a bow towards those around us, or even just a smile!!

MONDAY MASS

The funeral of the late Walter Giles takes place, tomorrow, Monday at 10.00am. There will be no Mass at 9.15am, on Monday morning.

ALLEN HALL NEWS

Our Diocesan Seminary, Allen Hall, have produced a newsletter, providing some information, about the life of the seminary. Copies are available in the porch, if you would like one, please help yourselves.

ANOTHER STEP FORWARD

Following the announcement by the Government that the measures put in place to mitigate against Covid virus transmission, "Plan B" will be lifted in full on 27th January, the following guidance has been received from the Bishops, and agreed with Public Health officials.

- The Church in England and Wales supports the vaccination programme and encourages people to be vaccinated.
- Anyone displaying symptoms of Covid-19 should stay at home and not participate in acts of worship in church.
- Use Hand Gel on arrival & departure

- Those attending an act of worship are encouraged to continue to wear a face covering (both nose and mouth) whilst in the church building.
- Holy water stoups will be refilled.
- Congregational singing may continue and there is a general encouragement to wear face coverings while singing.
- The taking of names and contact details will cease, but those who wish can 'sign-in' using the NHS 'Track & Trace' app.

HAVING FUN HELPING OTHERS.

The Parish Homeless Action Group is supporting local Catenians who are organising 'Masquerade - a fun evening of opera' on Saturday 26th February at Holy Ghost Parish Centre, 33 Westbourne Rd, Luton LU4

8JD in aid of NOAH, the Luton-based charity working across Bedfordshire offering hope and support to people struggling against homelessness and exclusion. You may remember that Peter Ward, one of our parishioners, spoke about NOAH in church in October; and also with Keystage Housing, gave a presentation in the crypt a few days later on the work they do and the support we as a parish can try to provide. Whether you are an opera lover or not you will be enraptured by the singing and the joyous occasion, so come along to this light but professionally sung gala evening, at the same time supporting a great cause. Bid in advance to have your favourite song performed in front of you. Win the prize for the best masquerade mask. Make up a group, bring your friends and book tickets at £32 per head ( a price kept as low as possible even though the event is being staged to generate funds for NOAH) via <https://noah-masquerade-opera.eventbrite.co.uk>.

See the poster on the notice board in the porch.

LITURGY GROUP LIVESIMPLY

To care for the World in which we live means to care for ourselves. Yet we need to think of ourselves more and more as a single family dwelling in a common home. Persons are no longer seen as a paramount value to be cared for and respected, especially when they are poor and disabled, "not yet useful" like the unborn or "no longer needed" like the elderly".

Pope Francis. Fratelli Tutti.
