As we go through life hopefully, from time to time, we receive different gifts which may mark a special moment in our life, or perhaps are simply an expression of gratitude or friendship. It may be the case that, sometimes, there will be those things that we appreciate more than others, while some we take for granted.

Today we celebrate the Feast of Corpus Christi - the feast of the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ. This feast reminds us of what we receive every time we come to the Mass - it speaks to us of the wonderful gift that we receive in Holy Communion - the gift of Jesus himself - the gift of his body and blood. Like many gifts though that we freely receive we might ask: 'do I really appreciate the gift that is so generously and lovingly given to me?'

If we are to appreciate what it is we receive we might want to think about our disposition as we come to Mass, or indeed how do I prepare myself to enter into this special celebration. Is attendance at Mass just another weekend 'chore' to be fitted in, something more to get done? Or is it something that I understand to be truly special, and prepare for? Maybe thinking about someone, or a particular situation, I want to pray for at Mass? In other words, allowing my life to be a part of the Mass, and the Mass to be a part of my life - Sunday not being isolated but a part of the rest of the week, a part of my life.

Today's feast today speaks of the great gift we are given in the Eucharist. an opportunity to give thanks to God for His goodness to us in so many ways, and above all in the Eucharist, where we encounter the one who is always present to us in the gift of his body and blood.

MISSION APPEAL

It's well over two years since a mission appeal was last made. Today, however, we welcome Fr David Pember who will be making an appeal on behalf of the Spiritans, also known as the Holy Ghost Fathers. After Mass, there will be an opportunity to give your support, if you wish.

MOVING ON

It's very good as we see much of our lives returning to what we know as 'normal'. And that's particularly true here in the parish, where most activities have recommenced. We would like to think of the church as a safe place, so for that reason hand gel will continue to be distributed, or be available, both on arrival and departure. The wearing of masks will be left for individuals to choose. If, however, you contract Covid, or are feeling unwell, please stay away.

FOR PARENTS AND CHILDREN

It's perfectly understandable that, from time to time, small children can become restless during Mass. If this happens parents are welcome to take the children to the 'crying' room; which is on the right as you enter the church.

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION

This Saturday, and last Saturday, 51 of our very young parishioners made, their First Holy Communion. This is a lovely occasion for them, and their families, as they receive the gift of the Eucharist for the first time. Please keep the children, and all involved in these celebrations, in your prayers.

FIRST COMMUNION 2023

From this weekend forms are available for parents who wish to register their children for First Holy Communion in 2023. Forms are available after Mass today. Please return your completed form with a copy of your child's Baptism Certificate to the Parish Office by 22nd July 2022.

ATTENDING MASS

The obligation to attend Mass every Sunday, and on holydays of obligation, was restored on Pentecost Sunday. It would be so good to see attendance at Mass, returning to pre-pandemic levels. If you know someone, or a family, not attending, do encourage them, invite them back, let them know that they are missed, and that they will be most welcome. This is a task, a mission, not just for the Parish Priest, but one we can all share in.

BE ALERT!

Someone has recently been knocking on doors, attempting to raise funds, "to buy equipment for a boxing club that is being set up by the Catholic Church in Harpenden". There are no plans to set up such a club. It's highly unlikely that fundraising would be done in this way, so always good to be cautious.

STRAWBERRY SOCIAL.

This very popular annual event will be on Sunday 3rd July in the parish garden from 3-5pm. Proceeds will go to the Barcelona settlement in South Africa.

Tickets cost £10 (family ticket £25) and will be on sale after all the Masses this weekend.
