+ CHRIST THE UNIVERSAL KING, YEAR B

“All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to Me.” (Mt 28.18)

The Solemnity of Christ the King of the Universe was instituted in 1925 by Pope XI through his encyclical, Quas Primas – ‘In the first’. In that encyclical the Pope addresses the increasing nationalism and secularism and reminds the faithful that while governments and philosophies come and go, Christ reigns for ever, and “of His kingdom, there will be no end” (Lk 1.33), just as He taught us that “heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will not pass away” (Mt 24.35; Lk 21.33). That kingdom has in fact already begun; it has come upon us (Mt 12.28) and is present in our midst (Lk 17.21). It was set in motion by the coming and ministry of Our Lord on earth. Having thus been established, it continues to grow through the ministry of the Word and the Sacraments until it reaches its fullness in heaven. Before He left this earth and ascended into heaven in His visible form, Our Lord declared that He is the sole possessor of all authority in heaven and on earth (Mt 28.18). He alone exercises governance over the whole of creation, firstly, as the One through whom all things were created, and without whom nothing whatever came into existence (John 1.3; Heb. 1.2); secondly, as He from whom alone all things are (1 Cor. 8.6); thirdly, as He in whom subsists all things, ‘in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible’ (Col. 1.16); and lastly, as the One to whom (Rom. 11.36); and for whom (Heb. 2.10) all things exist. He also exercises this authority of universal governance, not by flexing His muscle and making His authority felt (cf. Mt 20.25-27), but through the humble service of that love which overcomes all things (cf. 1 Cor. 13.1-13), including all adversity. His authority as manifested to us is thus chiefly that of love, and His royal sceptre is the cross – that eternal symbol of His self-sacrificial death by which He overcame the world (John 16.33) and to which all are called.
