+ LENT 2ND SUNDAY – YEAR B

“Rabbi, it is well that we are here.” (mark 9.5)

On 13 July 1917, Francesco, Jacinta, and (Sr) Lucia, the three young visionaries of Fatima, had a very terrifying vision of hell shown them by Our Lady. Their kind of experience is rare, but a genuine spiritual experience. It could be of any spiritual reality – God Himself, heaven, the saints, purgatory, hell, or the devil who can appear as an angel of light (2 Cor. 11.14). It goes beyond what we can attain by the natural use of our senses. It is a gift God grants to anyone He chooses, not as a result of the visioner's desires, efforts, merits, or sanctity, but gratuitously. It takes various forms, its highest form being the mystical union in love of the visioner with the Triune God (cf. Jn 14.23); for God is love (1 Jn 4.8), and “he who abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him” (1 Jn 4.16). The experience is so deep and indescribable, but not unintelligible. It is an experience “that cannot be told, which man may not utter” (2 Cor. 12.4). It is unutterable, because its object is totally outside the range of our natural experience, so we have no common language for it. The Scripture describes the object as “what no eye has seen, nor ear heard, nor the heart of man conceived” (1 Cor. 2.9). The visioner, like St Peter at the Transfiguration, may also be so transfixed by the experience as to know not what to say concerning it (cf. Mk 9.6). To be distinguished from vision as a genuine and deep spiritual experience are things like ecstasy which may have natural causes, mysticism as an intellectual experience of a direct and immediate intuition of truth, spiritism that mediums practise, and evocation such as the type employed by King Saul to call up the spirit of Samuel from the dead (1 Kg 28).

Cardinal's Lenten Appeal 2021:

Cardinal Nichols thanks you for your generous support for the Cardinal's Lenten Appeal, especially throughout the unprecedented events of 2020. Your donations help fund initiatives in parishes, schools and charities in three mission areas which are more critical than ever.

Marriage and Family Life: enriching and supporting marriages, the essential building block of society and the Church;

Youth and Evangelisation: helping young people, the future of the Church, as they grow in their relationship with God and deepen their Catholic faith;

Caritas Westminster: putting our faith into action by serving those in need;

Education Service: supporting our schools. This year, the Cardinal is asking us to think about families who are struggling to put food on the table. Poverty is deepening across our diocese and the need for foodbanks and supermarket vouchers has accelerated. Through your generosity we're continuing to provide food for those people most in need. Please take a donation envelope. You can use the QR code to make your donation online. Thank you for your generosity.

Please pray for the peaceful repose of Patricia Burford (known as Sam) who died on the 24th. Sam was the mother of our Parish Council Secretary, Maria Luck. Please also keep Maria and the whole family in your prayers.
