Gospel Reading John 15:9-17

Fr Brian writes....

Last Sunday Jesus taught that he was the vine and that his disciples were the branches. That's you and me. This unity leads to fruitful service. Today's reading extends this teaching to describe the kind of service that Christians are called upon to offer to others. This reading, like last week's, is part of Jesus' Last Supper discourse. In the context of John's Gospel, these words are spoken before Jesus' Crucifixion. So, we read his instruction to the disciples in the light of his death and Resurrection. We know that Jesus himself gives us the greatest example of the kind of love and service that he teaches to his disciples. He has, in fact, laid down his life for his friends, for his disciples, and for us. Through his death and Resurrection, we have received the grace to love others as Jesus has commanded.

When John wrote this Gospel, his community was influenced by a set of religious beliefs called Gnosticism. It appears that one of John's intentions was to distinguish Christian belief from the beliefs held by the Gnostics. One of the tenets of Gnostic teaching was the importance of knowledge, or gnosis, as the determining aspect of faith. We read today's Gospel as a response to this teaching.

In John's Gospel, we hear Jesus affirm that he is known by the Father and that his disciples will know the Father by knowing Jesus. In this passage, however, Jesus reminds his disciples that this knowledge is to be expressed in love. Those who know Jesus well—and Jesus says that his disciples do know him—will love one another. Knowledge leads to love, which leads to action. John reminds his community that Jesus taught that love is the sign of a true disciple and, thus, a true Christian. Even more, a true disciple shows a particular kind of love, sacrificial love. The disciples of Jesus were chosen and were sent into the world to bear fruit by serving others, by sacrificing for others, in love. This is the radical nature of the call to discipleship as a Christian.

Parish Council

The first gathering of the Parish Council occurs in a few weeks. It will begin a process of prayerful discernment of what the Spirit is saying to us as a parish, as we emerge from the pandemic and begin to shape our future, with the resources available. You may like to accompany us? There's the Pope's recent encyclical letter, Fratelli Tutti and his recent book, Let us Dream, which will inform our first few meetings until the Parish Council structures itself under my presidency. <https://amzn.to/3sIhLoK>

CAFOD: This year the UK will host the largest gathering of world leaders ever to take place on British soil: 'COP26' climate talks in Glasgow in November. As Prime Minister, Boris Johnson must push world leaders to show the ambition we need to keep temperature rises below the disastrous 1.5-degree threshold. This means that all countries must play their part. With the eyes of the world on the UK, we must urge the Prime Minister to make sure communities hardest hit by the climate emergency are listened to at COP26. Please sign CAFOD'S Petition at cafod.org.uk/reclaim.

Baptismal Certificates: If your child/children have recently been baptised and you need a baptismal certificate, please send the full names of the child, parents, godparents and Christian witnesses (if appointed) and full address to shirleybailey@rcdow.org.uk and she will arrange a certificate for you.

John F Kennedy School: We have a vacancy for a Premises Assistant for evening and weekend hirings to assist with our external hirings. For further details available on our website or contact the school directly.

Hemel Justice & Peace

International Conscientious Objectors' Day is on 15th May:

Every year people are urged to stand in solidarity with conscientious objectors around the world on this date: as well as remembering those who have refused to participate in war throughout history. Join the National Online Ceremony at 4.30pm. There will be a minute's silence, songs and speeches from around the UK and beyond. This year it is livestreamed from London. There is an excellent website link below where you can learn more about the organisation which has the support of Pax Christi and many other religious bodies. Simply visit www.CO-Day.org to watch the live stream.

Did you know? For those of us obliged to take regular medication, it comes as a relief that all that tablet packaging can now be recycled. "Superdrug" has taken this on board with a company called Terracycle. Other pharmacies may follow suit. An important environmental issue...?

Digital Collection Basket. The introduction of our Digital Collection Basket seems to be going well. It's a really easy to use self-service card donation point for our parish and has been installed at both of our churches. It is an alternative way for us to provide a more hygienic option to receive donations given the COVID-19 pandemic, as well as move us forward in eliminating our weekly loose coin and cash collection, with all the benefits that brings. So, if you usually donate using loose cash, please consider using your card or debit card instead. The digital collection basket accepts all major credit and debit cards. We are so used to using this type of equipment when we go shopping that it only makes sense for us to introduce it. It's easy to use, so give it a go and help us move to a cashless offertory collection based on digital giving and Standing Orders! As always, thank you for your generosity in the offertory collection and at other times. It is very much appreciated. You will not be able to gift-aid your donation at the moment, but this function will be enabled shortly and we'll let you know.

Reflection (Pope Francis)

Let us accept the grace of Christ's resurrection!
Let us be renewed by God's mercy, let us be loved by Jesus, let us enable the power of His love to transform our lives too; and let us become agents of this mercy, channels through which God can water the earth, protect all creation and make justice and peace flourish.

"Our call to love is one that transcends all prejudices, all historical and cultural barriers, all petty interests."
Fratelli Tutti : 83

Act of Spiritual Communion

In union, O Lord, with the faithful at every altar of your Church where your death and passion are-pleaded-before the Father,
I desire to offer you praise and thanksgiving.
I present to you my soul and body with the earnest wish that I may be united to you for ever:
and since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, I ask you to come to me spiritually.
I unite myself to you and embrace you with all the affection of my soul.
Let nothing ever separate me from you: let me live and die in your love.
Amen
