Background on the Gospel Reading John 6:1-15

In John's Gospel, Jesus' multiplication of the loaves and the fishes is presented as a sign of his authority and divinity. Jesus interprets the meaning and significance of this miracle as a sharing of his Body and Blood. This chapter is sometimes called the "Bread of Life Discourse.", John's Gospel uses the miracle of the multiplication of the loaves and fishes to teach about the Eucharist. John is teaching us that each time we celebrate the Eucharist, we are anticipating the eternal banquet of heaven. Yep! That's what we are doing at Mass on Sunday.

Recall that John's Gospel tells the story of the Last Supper differently than the other Gospels. Instead of describing the meal and Jesus' actions with the bread and cup, John describes how Jesus washed his disciples' feet. We hear this Gospel when we remember the Last Supper on Holy Thursday. This recollection of Jesus' action at the Last Supper complements the institution narrative of the Synoptic Gospels and Paul's Letters that we hear repeated at each Mass.

In both stories about the Eucharist—the washing of the disciples' feet and the multiplication of the loaves and the fishes—the Gospel of John teaches us that the Eucharist is an action. Our word Eucharist is taken from the Greek language and describes an action: "to give thanks." In the Eucharist we are fed by Jesus himself, and we are sent to serve others. Do we reflect the latter in our actions as a parish community?

The story of the multiplication of the loaves and the fishes recalls a particular aspect of the Mass. In this miracle, Jesus transforms a young boy's offering of five barley loaves and two fish. In the offertory at Mass, we present the fruits of our labours, represented by bread and wine. I like to make the Offertory prayers silently (as the rubrics allow the priest) so that in that period of silence you can fill it with what you wish to offer to the Lord along with the gifts. These gifts, given to us first by God as grain and fruit, are returned to God in our offering of thanksgiving. God in turn transforms our gifts, making this bread and wine the very Body and Blood of Jesus. We also offer ourselves in this exchange, and we, too, are transformed by the Eucharist to go on Mission in Hemel Hempstead!

World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly 2021: The inaugural World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly falls on Sunday 25th July. Pope Francis has given it the theme “I am with you always” from the Gospel of Matthew (Mt 28: 30).

Lord Jesus
 you were born of the Virgin Mary.
 the daughter of Saints Joachim and Anne.
 Look with love on grandparents the world over.
 Protect them! They are a source of enrichment for families, for the Church and for all of society.
 Support them as they grow older.
 May they continue to be for their family’s strong pillars of Gospel faith, guardians of Nobel domestic ideals, living treasuries of sound religious traditions.
 Make them teachers of wisdom and courage, that they may pass on to future generations the fruits of their mature human and spiritual experience.
 Amen
