

Reflection Saturday Advent Week 3 – 2020

To help us understand the pregnancy of Mary, scripture presents us with other stories of women becoming pregnant in unusual and oftentimes impossible circumstances. It helps reinforce our belief that nothing is impossible to God. The real sticking point is believing that God will work the impossible in us!!! Elizabeth must have had misgivings about the promise made to her to have a child, but it was her deepest hope and it was fulfilled for her. Hope is the key for us too. What is (are) your deepest hope(s)? Jesus comes this Christmas to bring them to realisation. Let us renew our hope and belief that he will fulfil our deepest hopes too.

Life Is an Advent Season CONNECTIONS, 11-28-93

Life is a constant Advent season: we are continually waiting to become, to discover, to complete, to fulfil. Hope, struggle, fear, expectation and fulfilment are all part of our Advent experience. The world is not as just, not as loving, not as whole as we know it can and should be. But the coming of Christ and his presence among us — as one of us — give us reason to live in hope that light will shatter the darkness, that we can be liberated from our fears and prejudices and that we are never alone or abandoned. May this Advent season be a time for bringing hope, transformation and fulfilment into the Advent of our lives.

I hope Elon Musk never gets involved in a scandal. Elongate would be really drawn out.

A traveller became lost in a desert storm and the only thing he had with him was an apple. It was so precious that whenever he was thirsty or hungry, he would only look at the apple, then he would continue walking again full of hope. Unfortunately, he still died in the desert. The police report stated the following:

He would have walked out of the desert if he had had a Samsung or Nokia.
