

The Light of Hope

Hope is one of the most important keys to a better future. Listen to what some have said about HOPE.

Emily Dickinson. Hope is the thing with feathers that perches in the soul - and sings the tunes without the words - and never stops at all.

Desmond Tutu. Hope is being able to see that there is light despite the darkness.

Augustine of Hippo. Hope has two beautiful daughters; Anger and Courage. Anger at the way things are, and Courage to see that they do not remain as they are.

Helen Keller. Hope sees the invisible, feels the intangible, and achieves the impossible.

Francis of Assisi. Where there is discord may we bring harmony. Where there is error, may we bring truth. Where there is doubt, may we bring faith. Where there is despair, may we bring hope.

In remembering the Holocaust, we gather in the HOPE that nothing like that will ever happen again. For Hope sees the possible in the impossible, sees the divine in the human, particularly in these difficult times of the pandemic. But, most of all, Hope helps us see the beauty, wonder and miracle that we are. We stand together sharing our hope for the future and as a sign of HOPE and LIGHT for the world.
