

Reflection Wednesday Week 21 – 2021

Much of what St Paul said to the Thessalonians, could be said about this parish family. You have been taught what was right, you have been encouraged and responded generously to the call to live a life worthy of God, who is calling you to share the glory of his kingdom. Over the years, Assumptionists have constantly given thanks to God for you because as soon as you heard the message that was brought to you as God's message, you accepted it for what it really is, God's message and not some human thinking; and it is still very much a living power among you who believe it.

As a family of the Church, be inspired by the words of Psalm 139: 7-12.

Where could I go from your Spirit?

Where could I run and hide from your face?

If I go up to heaven, you're there!

If I go down to the realm of the dead, you're there too!

If I fly with wings into the shining dawn, you're there!

If I fly into the radiant sunset, you're there waiting!

Wherever I go, your hand will guide me;

your strength will empower me.

It's impossible to disappear from you

or to ask the darkness to hide me,

for your presence is everywhere, bringing light into my night.

There is no such thing as darkness with you.

The night, to you, is as bright as the day;

there's no difference between the two.

The psalm reassures us that God watches over us everywhere and always!!
