

Reflection Tuesday Week 22 – 2023

Isn't it interesting that the evil spirits were well aware of who Jesus was, yet human beings did not. Even his followers did not believe he was God, though they believed he was the Messiah.

As we know, Jesus is alive in the Eucharist! But He is also veiled in the Eucharist. This combination of being veiled and truly present gives us wonderful guidance in our faith.

Jesus is here, right now, in our presence, but we most likely do not see Him. But He is truly here! Although we are constantly in His presence and we do not realize it. This is especially true when we are at Mass but it is also true in countless other ways throughout our day. Let us commit ourselves to seeing Him, to recognizing Him and to adoring Him. Let us discover the resurrected presence of Jesus all around us.

Too often we think that our Lord is present only in extraordinary ways. But that is not true! He is constantly present to us in very ordinary ways. He is here with us right now, loving us, speaking to us, and calling us to love Him. Do you see Him? Do you recognize His presence?

The truth is that God is with us now and always. He is constantly with us and is constantly speaking to us. Look for Him and listen to His voice. You may be surprised at how near He really is.

Lord, thank You for loving me so much that You are always with me. Help me to see You and to recognize Your gentle and still voice. Give me the eyes of faith to see You present in the Eucharist, and help me to discern Your presence in every ordinary event of my day. I love You, Lord and I trust You.
